IOS Developer

Arya Hamrah Samaneh

Tehran, Iran

The Role

1- Mobile Native Application – iOS Developer– with expertise in iOS platform for tablets and smart phones.
2- Ability to work with Business analysts, user experience architects, UI Designers
3- Design and develop a scalable solution that fits multiple platforms such as tablets and phones.
4- Ability to designs solutions that confirm to non-functional requirements such as performance.
5- Ability to multi-task, learn and adapt quickly to related technologies in a fast paced environment

About the Company

We are a solution provider and system integrator, and a leader in EPCM projects in Iran and Middle East, who provides managed services. In addition to the top performance in data center projects. We broadened our activities to network solutions and low current transportation systems, such as telecommunications, control and signaling systems in Metro-LRT lines.